THE MANY FORMS OF PENANCE IN CHRISTIAN LIFE

Catechism of the Catholic Church - Article 1436 - 1439

"Eucharist and Penance. Daily conversion and penance find their source and nourishment in the Eucharist, for in it is made present the sacrifice of Christ which has reconciled us with God. Through the Eucharist those who live from the life of Christ are fed and strengthened. "It is a remedy to free us from our daily faults and to preserve us from mortal sins (.Council of Trent (1551) DS 1638)."

Reading Sacred Scripture, praying the Liturgy of the Hours and the Our Father - every sincere act of worship or devotion revives the spirit of conversion and repentance within us and contributes to the forgiveness of our sins.

The seasons and days of penance in the course of the liturgical year (Lent, and each Friday in memory of the death of the Lord) are intense moments of the Church's penitential practice (Cf. SC 109-110; CIC, cann. 1249-1253.; CCEO, Cann. 880-883). These times are particularly appropriate for spiritual exercises, penitential liturgies, pilgrimages as signs of penance, voluntary self-denial such as fasting and almsgiving, and fraternal sharing (charitable and missionary works).

The process of conversion and repentance was described by Jesus in the parable of the prodigal son, the center of which is the merciful father: (Cf. Lk 15:11-24). The fascination of illusory freedom, the abandonment of the father's house; the extreme misery in which the son finds himself after squandering his fortune; his deep humiliation at finding himself obliged to feed swine, and still worse, at wanting to feed on the husks the pigs ate; his reflection on all he has lost; his repentance and decision to declare himself guilty before his father; the journey back; the father's generous welcome; the father's joy - all these are characteristic of the process of conversion. the beautiful robe, the ring, and the festive banquet are symbols of that new life - pure worthy, and joyful - of anyone who returns to God and to the bosom of his family, which is the Church. Only the heart of Christ Who knows the depths of his Father's love could reveal to us the abyss of his mercy in so simple and beautiful a way."

DIVERSAS FORMAS DE PENITENCIA EN LA VIDA CRISTIANA

Catecismo de la Iglesia Catolica - Artículo 1436 a 1439

"Eucaristía y Penitencia. La conversión y la penitencia diarias encuentran su fuente y su alimento en la Eucaristía, pues en ella se hace presente el sacrificio de Cristo que nos reconcilió con Dios; por ella son alimentados y fortificados los que viven de la vida de Cristo; "es el antídoto que nos libera de nuestras faltas cotidianas y nos preserva de pecados mortales" (Concilio de Trento: DS 1638).

La lectura de la sagrada Escritura, la oración de la Liturgia de las Horas y del Padre Nuestro, todo acto sincero de culto o de piedad reaviva en nosotros el espíritu de conversión y de penitencia y contribuye al perdón de nuestros pecados.

Los tiempos y los días de penitencia a lo largo del año litúrgico (el tiempo de Cuaresma, cada viernes en memoria de la muerte del Señor) son momentos fuertes de la práctica penitencial de la Iglesia (cf SC 109-110; CIC can. 1249-1253; CCEO 880-883). Estos tiempos son particularmente apropiados para los ejercicios espirituales, las liturgias penitenciales, las peregrinaciones como signo de penitencia, las privaciones voluntarias como el ayuno y la limosna, la comunicación cristiana de bienes (obras caritativas y misioneras).

El proceso de la conversión y de la penitencia fue descrito maravillosamente por Jesús en la parábola llamada "del hijo pródigo", cuyo centro es "el padre misericordioso" (Lc 15,11-24): la fascinación de una libertad ilusoria, el abandono de la casa paterna; la miseria extrema en que el hijo se encuentra tras haber dilapidado su fortuna; la humillación profunda de verse obligado a apacentar cerdos, y peor aún, la de desear alimentarse de las algarrobas que comían los cerdos; la reflexión sobre los bienes perdidos; el arrepentimiento y la decisión de declararse culpable ante su padre, el camino del retorno; la acogida generosa del padre; la alegría del padre: todos estos son rasgos propios del proceso de conversión. El mejor vestido, el anillo y el banquete de fiesta son símbolos de esta vida nueva, pura, digna, llena de alegría que es la vida del hombre que vuelve a Dios y al seno de su familia, que es la Iglesia. Sólo el corazón de Cristo, que conoce las profundidades del amor de su Padre, pudo revelarnos el abismo de su misericordia de una manera tan llena de simplicidad y de belleza."

Prayer to St. Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in Battle; Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Oración a San Miguel Arcangel

San Miguel Arcángel: defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y las asechanzas del demonio. ¡Reprímale Dios, pedimos sulpicantes! Y tú, Principe de la Milicia Celestial, arroja al infierno a Satanás y a los demás Espiritu malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.
